

This is Me Characteristics Booklet

1. Design an Illustrated Adjective Booklet that Describes Your Characteristics
2. Use the Characteristics List of Adjectives to help you write 10 to 15 adjectives that describe you as an individual.
3. Improve your vocabulary. You will learn more words to describe yourself, other people, and characters in stories.

Teacher must approve drafts.

4. Make drafts on lined paper so adjectives are approved for spelling and sophistication.
5. Write your name vertically and start the cover adjectives with the letters of your first name. It can be the name you go by in class. Teacher must check and approve your list before you go to the next step.

Spell carefully! Teacher must check!

6. On a new piece of lined paper, write a new list (cannot be words from cover) of 10 to 15 adjectives from the list or other source in alphabetical order. You will not use all the letters of the alphabet. You will skip some. Do not use the same letter more than once.

Teacher must check and approve your list before you go on. Date _____

FOLLOW Directions....

7. Now use each of the inside words in an interesting sentence that explains why you fit the adjective. Spell all words correctly. Underline the adjective.

For example:

Dramatic

My mother said that I was just being overly dramatic as I begged while down on my knees and cried that I needed a new video game or I would be bored to death.

Date _____

Teacher must approve your draft.

8. Teacher must initial each parts 5., 6., and, above before you start on final copy in pencil with hand drawn and colored pencil illustrations, or glue magazine pictures, or photos. (You may use combine any of the art work.)

Cover

9. Print letters of your first name vertically on cover of the 8½ x 11" paper folded in half hamburger style (see example). Print your last name neatly in the right hand corner of the cover half an inch from the top and half an inch from the right side of the paper.

Be neat.

11. Write your This is Me Adjective Booklet with conventions (correct spelling, punctuation, and capitalization). Use descriptive sentences. Make it attractive and neat. Follow directions carefully.
12. Keep at least a half inch margin around the edge of the paper. Do not write in that margin.
